

Books and/or Resources on Measurement Tools and Instruments<sup>1</sup>

1. Measures for Clinical Practice and Research: A Sourcebook, Volume 1: Couples, Families, and Children, 5th Edition
  - ISBN13: 978-0199778584
  - Author(s): Kevin Corcoran and Joel Fischer
  - Publisher: Oxford University Press (New York)
  - Publication Year: 2013
  - Format: Hardcover
  - Can be found at FSU library or purchased online
2. Measures for Clinical Practice and Research: A Sourcebook, Volume 2: Adults, 5th Edition
  - ISBN13: 978-0199778591
  - Author(s): Kevin Corcoran and Joel Fischer
  - Publisher: Oxford University Press
  - Publication Year: 2013
  - Format: Hardcover
  - Can be found at FSU library or purchased online
3. Measurement Instrument Database for the Social Sciences
  - Repository for instruments used in the social sciences
  - Sometimes able to download actual tool and scoring instructions (if available)
  - <http://www.midss.org/>
4. Handbook of Tests and Measurement in Education and the Social Sciences, 3rd Edition
  - ISBN13: 9781610484305
  - Author(s): Paula E. Lester, Deborah Inman, and Lloyd K. Bishop
  - Publisher: Rowman & Littlefield Publishers (Lanham, Maryland)
  - Publication Year: 2014
  - Format: Paperback
  - Can be found at FSU library or purchased online
5. Tests and Measures in the Social Sciences
  - List of books/resources including collections of instruments
  - <http://libraries.uta.edu/TMdb/>
6. Health and Psychosocial Instruments (HaPI) (EBSCO)
  - Searchable directory
  - May need to register/create online account; may have cost to utilize resource
  - <https://www.ebscohost.com/academic/health-and-psychosocial-instruments-hapi>

---

<sup>1</sup> This list prepared by Carol Gagliano, Center for Health Equity, Inc., February 10, 2017